(B) With the consent of the premises owner and, if the premises owner is different from the livestock owner, the livestock owner, the director or the director's authorized representative may enter at all reasonable times on any premises for the purpose of determining compliance with the rules adopted under section 904.03 of the Revised Code. SECTION 2. That existing section 102.02 of the Revised Code is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety. The reason for such necessity is the importance of beginning the process of establishing standards of care for livestock and poultry as quickly as possible in order to fulfill the constitutional mandate of the Ohio Livestock Care Standards Board to maintain food safety, encourage locally grown and raised food, and protect Ohio farms and families. Therefore, this act shall go into immediate effect.
